Domestic Bank Opens New Branch inside Coventry Wal-Mart

CRANSTON (February 23, 2007) – Domestic Bank is opening its latest branch inside the new Wal-Mart Super Center in Coventry on February 26th. This branch is the second of three new locations that the bank is opening this year.

Domestic Bank has also opened a branch inside the Providence store and will begin offering banking services to Wal-Mart Super Center customers in Northbridge, MA next month. These three new branches bring the total number of Domestic retail locations to nine. All of Domestic Bank's in-store branches are open 7-days-a-week with extended hours to better serve their customers.

“We are really excited to offer greater convenience to the residents and businesses of Kent County. They will now be able to bank with us right here in Coventry and at our nearby Rhode Island Mall and North Kingstown Wal-Mart branches.” said Domestic Bank President Nathaniel B. Baker. “We are focused on providing exceptional service and anticipating the needs of our customers. I believe that we are quickly becoming one of New England's most convenient banks. All of our branches are open late and eight of the nine are open 7-days a week. We also have over 1475 ATMs throughout New England.”

Domestic Bank was founded in 1967 to provide a full line of banking services to business and consumers, borrowers and savers. For over 40 years, they have grown every year by honoring a tradition of service, prudent lending and an overall conservative approach to finance. With offices in Cranston, Warwick, Johnston, Woonsocket, North Kingstown, Providence Coventry and Raynham, MA, they have expanded their services to offer comprehensive programs to meet the complete banking needs of their customers.
